

ADAPTWISE — TERMS & CONDITIONS

Last updated: 5 September 2026

These Terms & Conditions apply to the purchase and use of the AdaptWise 30-Day Guide, associated digital materials, downloads and resources ("AdaptWise").

By purchasing or accessing AdaptWise, you agree to these Terms & Conditions. Please read them before purchasing.

1. About AdaptWise

AdaptWise is a digital educational product designed to help users think more strategically about career adaptability, skills, opportunities, artificial intelligence, business ideas and building greater economic resilience.

The material is provided for general educational and informational purposes. It is designed to provide frameworks, exercises, ideas and practical guidance that you can apply to your own circumstances.

AdaptWise does not provide financial, investment, legal, tax, employment or other regulated professional advice.

2. No Guarantee of Results

Your results depend on your circumstances, decisions, skills, experience, effort, market conditions and many other factors outside our control.

We do not guarantee that purchasing or completing AdaptWise will result in employment, increased income, a successful business, financial independence, career advancement or any other particular outcome.

Any examples, scenarios, projections or success stories used within AdaptWise are illustrative and should not be interpreted as promises or guarantees of future results.

You remain responsible for evaluating information and making your own decisions.

3. AI and Third-Party Tools

AdaptWise may discuss or recommend artificial intelligence platforms, websites, software and other third-party services.

These services are operated independently and may change their features, pricing, availability, terms or functionality at any time.

We do not control third-party services and cannot guarantee their continued availability or accuracy.

AI-generated information can also be incomplete, inaccurate or outdated. Users should exercise their own judgement and independently verify important information before acting upon it.

4. Digital Content and Access

AdaptWise is supplied digitally.

You are responsible for ensuring that you have a suitable device, internet connection and software necessary to access the materials.

We may make reasonable updates, corrections or improvements to AdaptWise over time, provided these do not materially reduce the digital content you purchased.

5. Cancellation and Digital Downloads

Where you request immediate access to AdaptWise before the end of the statutory cancellation period, you expressly consent to the supply of the digital content beginning immediately.

You acknowledge that once supply of the digital content has begun following that consent, you lose your statutory right to cancel the purchase under the applicable rules governing digital content.

Nothing in these Terms affects any statutory rights you may have where digital content is faulty, not as described or otherwise does not conform to applicable consumer law.

This distinction is important under UK online-selling rules.

6. Intellectual Property

Unless expressly stated otherwise, all AdaptWise materials — including written content, exercises, frameworks, worksheets, graphics, layouts, videos, downloadable files and supporting resources — are protected by copyright and other applicable intellectual property rights.

Your purchase grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use AdaptWise for your own personal use.

You may download and store materials for your own use.

You may not, without prior written permission:

- reproduce, copy or redistribute AdaptWise materials;
- sell, resell, sublicense or commercially exploit them;
- upload or share the materials publicly or privately with others;
- provide copies through file-sharing services, groups, forums or marketplaces;
- repackage, modify or rebrand the materials for resale or distribution;
- represent AdaptWise content as your own;
- use substantial portions of the materials to create a competing course, guide, product or resource.

Purchasing AdaptWise does not transfer ownership of its intellectual property to you.

7. Account and Access Sharing

Where access is provided through an individual account, purchase or download link, that access is intended solely for the purchaser.

You must not intentionally share login credentials, private download links or restricted course materials with other people.

We may suspend or restrict access where we reasonably believe an account or access link is being used for unauthorised distribution, piracy or other material breach of these Terms.

8. Acceptable Use

You agree not to use AdaptWise, its website or associated resources unlawfully or in a way that infringes our rights or the rights of another person.

You must not attempt to bypass security measures, gain unauthorised access to restricted material, systematically scrape protected course content, or use the service to distribute malicious software.

9. Accuracy and Availability

We make reasonable efforts to keep AdaptWise useful and accurate. However, fields covered by the course — particularly AI, technology, employment and online business — can change quickly.

Information may therefore become outdated after publication.

Temporary technical problems may occasionally affect access to online materials. Where reasonably possible, we will work to restore access.

10. Limitation of Liability

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability where doing so would be unlawful, including liability that cannot legally be excluded under UK consumer law.

Subject to those rights, we are not responsible for losses arising solely from business, career, investment or other decisions made by a user based on general educational material contained within AdaptWise.

You are responsible for determining whether a particular action is appropriate for your circumstances and for obtaining professional advice where necessary.

11. Prices and Payment

The price displayed at checkout is the price payable for the product, subject to any clearly disclosed taxes or charges that apply.

Payment must be successfully completed before access is provided unless we expressly state otherwise.

Any promotional price or discount applies only according to the conditions stated with that promotion.

12. Refunds

Any voluntary refund policy offered by AdaptWise will be displayed on the website or at checkout.

Any voluntary refund policy is additional to, and does not replace or restrict, rights customers have under applicable consumer law.

Where immediate digital access has begun after the customer has provided the required consent and acknowledgement, the statutory cancellation rules for digital content apply as described in Section 5.

13. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms where reasonably necessary, for example to reflect changes to the product, our business or applicable law.

Changes will not retrospectively remove rights that a customer acquired under the terms applicable when they made their purchase.

The current version will be published on this website together with its last-updated date.

14. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

If you are a consumer resident elsewhere in the United Kingdom or another jurisdiction, you may also benefit from mandatory consumer protections applicable where you live.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to prevent a consumer from exercising rights regarding jurisdiction that cannot lawfully be excluded.
